Andrews, Col. Christopher	d. 14 Nov 1866	76 yrs.	R69/152
The Evening Star, November 13, 1866 Death of One of the Oldest Inhabitants Yesterday Colonel Christopher Andrews died at his residence on the corner of 11th and G streets from the affects of a fall. He was in his 77th year. Col. Andrews was born in Ireland, but arrived in this country when only 10 years of age and shortly afterwards made this city his place of residence. During the war of 1812 he was an adjutant of the uniformed volunteers and rendered efficient service especially in supporting Commodore Perry and Porter in their attack on the British fleet in the Potomac. Subsequently he entered the regular service and distinguished himself in Florida and Mexico. He was one of the first to join the Oldest Inhabitant's Association. His funeral will take place tomorrow.
