General Thomas Blount, a representative from North Carolina, was born in Edgecombe County, May 10, 1759, and at the age of sixteen entered the Revolutionary Army. In 1780 he became a deputy paymaster-general, and was a major commanding a battalion of North Carolina militia at the battle of Eutaw Springs. The Congressional Biography ranks him a major-general of militia. He enjoyed a long congressional career, passing away while a member, February 7, 1812. There is no inscription on his monument of patriot service.
