

Name	Birth/Death	Age	Range/Site
Bryant, Anna Lilly	d. 8 Apr 1853	8 mo.	R46/116
Bryant. On the 8th instant, Anna Lilly, daughter of John Y. Bryant, aged 8 months. Funeral from the father's residence this day at 4 o'clock p.m.
Bryant, Garrett D.	d. 24 Nov 1878	27 yrs.	R5/197
Bryant. On the 24th of November, 1878, Garrett D. Bryant, aged 27 years. Leaves have their time to fall, Heaven provides a rest for all, Where sorrow and suffering are no more; Dear Garrett has fled to that happy shore. By His Intended Wife, A.M.S. Funeral will take place from Naval Hospital, Tuesday, at 10 1/2 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited to attend.
Bryant, Gladys	d. 25 Aug 1913	5 yrs. 9 mos.	R51/307
Bryant. On Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock Gladys Bryant, aged 5 years and 9 months, daughter of Susie Bryant and the late C.H. Bryant formerly of Calvert Co., Md. Funeral from her late home, 1122 6th street s.w., Wednesday, August 27 at 3 p.m. Interment in Congressional Cemetery (Baltimore papers please copy).  The Evening Star, August 26, 1913, p. 16 Gladys Bryant Dead Daughter of Mrs. Susie Bryant Is Victim of Meningitis Gladys Bryant, a six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Susie and the late C.H. Bryant, died Sunday evening at Sibley Hospital of meningitis, after an illness of three weeks. Funeral services will be held from her late home, 1122 6th street southwest, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be in Congressional cemetery.  An operation was performed in the hope of saving the child's life, but complications made recovery impossible.
sBryant, Isaac C.	d. 8 Dec 1880		R2/98
The Evening Star, December 8, 1880 Sudden Death of Isaac C. Bryant Found Dying on the Commons Yesterday afternoon information was left at the 8th precinct station that the body of a man had been discovered on the commons, near the corner of 17th and A streets northeast, but before the police could arrange for its removal, a wagon was sent from the almshouse and it was taken to that institution, where it was discovered that life was not quite extinct, but the man died very soon after his arrival at the asylum. From letters found in his pocket, it was ascertained that his name was Isaac C. Bryant. He was an elderly man, who resided with his daughter in the eastern portion of the city. Some of the letters were addressed to Isaac C. Bryant, care of Joseph Platz. Mr. Platz states that Bryant came from Philadelphia, and that he was a temperate man. When found there was a large ordise on his face which may have been caused by falling.  The Evening Star, December 9, 1880 Locals Yesterday the coroner viewed the body of Isaac C. Bryan whose death on the road near the Navy Yard was reported yesterday and gave a burial certificate declaring that the death occurred from congestion of the lungs.
Bryant, Levisa A.	d. 21 Feb 1903		R1/1
Bryant. On Saturday, February 21, 1903, at 9:45 a.m., Levisa Ann, beloved wife of James B. Bryant, at her residence, 415 11th street southwest. Notice of funeral hereafter.
Bryant, Mary J.	d. 19 Jul 1904		R145/203
Bryant. Departed this life July 19, 1904, Mary J., beloved wife of Lewis C. Bryant and mother of Mrs. Laura Mitchell. Funeral from her late residence, 1033 13th street southeast, Thursday, July 21, at 2 p.m. Interment Congressional cemetery. All friends invited.			