Bro. Thomas S. Burr, of Federal Lodge, No. 1, has presented to that Lodge the Masonic apron worn by the late Bro. Thomas Donoho, with the request that it be placed among the archives of the Lodge. Major Donoho is well remembered by most of our older citizens as the chief clerk to Gales & Seaton, of the National Intelligencer, and who for more than fifty years enjoyed the confidence of those gentlemen. The apron is very handsome, being embroidered in gold and colors of white satin, and bears upon it the various emblems of the higher degrees of the Masonic fraternity.
