The National Intelligencer, Friday, January 20, 1826

The last mail from the West brought us news of the death of the Hon. Patrick Farrelly, one of the Representatives in Congress, from the State of Pennsylvania. He died at Pittsburg, being on his way to the Seat of Government, when his illness arrested him. Mr. F. was a member also of the two last Congresses, and of course, though he had not attended at this session, is well known to us, and a majority of the members of both Houses of Congress. He was a man of strong natural intellect, and; from all accounts, perhaps the best Greek and Latin scholar in either House. He was a native of Ireland, and was educated for the Catholic priesthood. Arriving in this Country, he preferred the practice of the law, in which, we believe, he was pretty successful. His age, at the time of his death, must have been upwards of fifty years.
