B.F. Pleasants in the chair) to express their esteem of their late fellow-clerk, Major William P. Hallett, who died on the 12th instant, and appropriate resolutions were adopted. Deceased was well known as a gentleman of ability and great kindness of heart, and served with distinction during the late war as an officer in the 13th New York cavalry, receiving while in the service a stroke of paralysis, from which he never recovered.
