

Isaacs, Harriet	d. 8 Apr 1894		R97/373
------------------------	---------------	--	----------------

Isaac. After a long and painful illness, which she bore with Christian fortitude, Harriet A., beloved wife of Thomas Isaac.

How I miss thee, Harriet, dear,
 No one e'er can tell.
 Faithful, patient, loving, true,
 Thou hast gone to heaven to dwell.

In this bitter, cruel world alone
 I am left to stay,
 Weep and sigh and mourn thy loss
 Till I am called away.

By Her Beloved Husband

Mother's gone and we're so lonely,
 Mother--sweetest name e'er spoke.
 In her love our hearts found shelter,
 When life's storms and tempest broke.
 Mother's gone, the Master called her,
 He who died her sould to save,
 And she's gone in triumph homeward,
 Tho' her pathway through the grave.

By Her Beloved Children

Funeral from her late residence, 1020 South Capitol street, Tuesday, April 10 at 2 o'clock p.m., thence to Independent Methodist Church, 11th street between G and I streets southeast.

Isaac. Departed this life after a short illness, on Monday, July 10, 1899, at 6:55 p.m., Iva Lee, only beloved daughter of Benjamin B. and Rosa L. Isaac, in her first year.

The little crib is empty now,
 The little clothes laid by;
 A mother's hope, a father's joy,
 In death's cold arms doth lie.
 Oh! for a look on that sweet face,
 A touch of that vanished hand,
 For a sound of that voice that we loved so well
 That is now in the promised land.

Isaac. At 12:55 o'clock on September 13, 1895, Viola I., youngest child of Benjamin B. and Rosie L. Isaac, aged 2 years 1 month and 16 days.

We had a little treasure once,
 She was our joy and pride;
 We loved her, oh, perhaps too well,
 For soon she slept and died.

All is dark within our dwelling
 Lonely are our hearts today,
 For one we loved so dearly,
 Has forever passed away.
