

Name	Birth/Death	Age	Range/Site
McFee, Annie	d. 8 Jan 1888		R96/208
McFee. Fell asleep in Jesus on the 8th of January, 1888, Annie, beloved wife of the late John McFee. Farewell, dear mother, we'll meet once more, But not upon life's changeful sea; 'Twill be on the blissful, heavenly shore, Where storms, wind, or tempest can never be. Bright forms beckon her to that land, With her last farewell to her children dear; She left us all to join you heavenly band, And wait for our coming there. Their good mother and friend, after a long life filled with acts of untiring and loving ministry to others and earnest devotion to her Master, passed away peacefully to her eternal home, with full trust in Him on whom she had so long believed and in full hope of a glorious immortality. Conscious until the last, surrounded by those who loved her, her warm and loyal heart was filled with the remembrance of the tender care she had received from her loving daughters and sympathizing friends. She fell asleep in Jesus to awaken in a glorious immortality. A Friend. Funeral services from Westminster Presbyterian church on Wednesday, January 11, at two o'clock p.m.
McFee, James	d. 31 Aug 1902		R96/207
McFee. At Providence Hospital, on Sunday, August 31, 1902, James McFee. Funeral from 1523 Half street southwest, Tuesday, September 2 at 3 p.m. Interment at Congressional cemetery.
McFee, Jennie	d. 1 Dec 1879	22 yrs.	R96/209
McFee. Fell asleep in Jesus, on the 1st of December, 1879, Jennie, beloved daughter of Annie and the late John McFee, in the 23d year of her age. Weep not for your darling, fond mother, Your lost one is already found; And has by the hands of the angels Been taken to heaven to be crowned. She's now happy, joyous and smiling, In her new and beautiful home; Where, freed from earthly affliction, She's waiting for her mother to come. Her funeral will take place from her mother's residence, 1515 Half street s.w., Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. (Philadelphia papers please copy).
McFee, Lettie	d. 9 Feb 1888		R96/209
McFee. Departed this life on Thursday, February 9th, 1888, at 1:25 p.m., Lettie McFee, daughter of the late John and Annie McFee. Ye must fold the hands gently over her breast, And take the last kiss ere you lay her to rest; For her trials are over, her labors are done, And the angels have whispered sister come home. Then shed not a tear when her grave ye shall see; She has broken sin's fetters from sorrow set free; Now the angels keep watch o'er her lone narrow bed, And whispered she sleepeth, our sister now dead. The relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral at her late residence, 1515 Half street southwest, on Sunday, February 12th, at 1:30 p.m., and proceed to the Westminster Presbyterian church, Seventh street, between D and E southwest.
McFee, Rachel	d. 15 Apr 1885		R96/209
McFee. Fell asleep in Jesus, on April 15th, 1885, Rachel, beloved daughter of Annie and the late John McFee. A vacant seat in our house today For God has called from us away My dear sister to dwell with Him In bliss beyond the skies. Our home was her delight and pride,

Name	Birth/Death	Age	Range/Site
------	-------------	-----	------------

And to improve it all she tried,
Yet God who knoweth all things best,
Let her enjoy eternal rest.
Funeral on Sunday, April 19th, at 2 o'clock p.m., from her residence, 1515 Half street southwest.

McFee. The funeral of the late Rachael McFee, who was a devout member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church who died on April 15, 1885, will take place Sunday, April 19 from her late residence, 1515 Half street s.w. at 2 o'clock p.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.