Moorsom, Richard L.  The Evening Star, April 7, 1914, p. 24  Death Comes Quickly  Richard L. Moorsom Succumbs to Apoplexy While Aboard Street Car            Richard L. Moorsom, fifty-seven years old, of 1004 Massachusetts avenue northeast died suddenly yesterday afternoon on a street car at Georgia avenue and Butternut street northwest. Death was due to apoplexy. Mr. Moorsom, who was for the past thirty years a life insurance agent, ran and boarded the car. He was breathing heavily, and remarked to another passenger that his heart was beating fast. Suddenly he toppled over in his seat and died within a few minutes. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at his late residence.	d. 6 Apr 1914	57 yrs.	R40/3
