

Reese, Albert A.	d. 8 May 1906	57 yrs.	R115/222
-------------------------	---------------	---------	-----------------

Reese. On Tuesday, May 8, 1906 at 9:20 p.m., Albert A. Reese, beloved husband of Annie Reese, aged 57 years.

Gone from earth, yes gone forever;
Tear-dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain,
We shall hear pain's voice, oh, never,
Nevermore on earth again.
He was thoughtful, loving and tender
With us each and every one
Here he suffered, but now rejoicing
His joy in heaven has just begun.
By His Daughter

Funeral will take place Friday, May 11 at 3 p.m., from his late residence, 501 M street southwest. Relatives at Fifth Baptist Church, on D between 6th and 7th streets southwest. Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend.

Struck By Car

Albert Reese Sustains a Fracture of the Skull

Albert Reese, fifty-five years of age, who has been in the employ of the Capital Traction Company for several years, was struck by a street car last night and severely injured. It is stated that he had been enjoying a short vacation and was near the river front conversing with a number of friends. When he left them and started to go to his home, 552 M street southwest, he passed in the rear of one car and was struck by a car going in the opposite direction. Mr. Reese was thrown several feet from the car and injured about his head.

When Mr. Reese reached the Emergency Hospital the surgeons found that he had sustained a fracture of the skull and that his condition was serious. Relatives called to see him. When his brother visited the institution this morning the patient was unconscious.

Reese, Annie	d. 19 Mar 1876	19 yrs. 6 mos. 7 days	R4/102

Reese. On the 19th of March, 1876, at 2 o'clock a.m., Annie C., second daughter of Philip M. and Sarah Reese, aged 19 years 6 months and 7 days.

Weep not for her, though death has set
His signet on her now;
And though the dew of death has wet,
That pure and snowy brew.

'Tis better thus to see her lie,
In calm, unbroken rest,
Than hear her breathe that troubled sigh,
And mark her heaving breast.

"None knew her but to love her."

The funeral will take place from the residence of her parents, 816 F street southwest, on Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

----------------------	----------------	--------	----------------

Reese. On Sunday, February 19, 1888, at 1 o'clock a.m., Ida K. Reese, infant daughter of William H. and Emma Reese, aged 2 years.

The darling of our household band,
The youngest "infant dove,"
Her snowy wings unfolded
And sought a rest above.

Little Ida heard a loving voice,
Not for our ears designed,
And all our loving hearts,

Our birdling sweet resigned.
 Funeral will take place from her parents' residence, No. 1118 G street southeast, on Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock.

Funeral of W.H. Reese

Veteran of Civil War and Long Resident of Washington

Funeral services for William H. Reese, a Union veteran of the civil war, and a resident of the District of Columbia for the last forty years, whose death occurred Sunday evening, took place from the Reese home, 1118 G street southeast, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Burial will be in Congressional cemetery.

Born in Delaware county, Pa., November 4, 1840, W.H. Reese received his education in the county schools and later engaged in business in Philadelphia. At the outbreak of the civil war he enlisted as a private in the 27th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry and served with that command until the close of hostilities in April, 1865, rising from the ranks to the Command of a company.

He was honorably mentioned for bravery by his commanding officers at the battle of Cold Harbor. Capt. Reese was wounded twice in this engagement, and again before the close of the war.

During his residence in Washington he was an active member of the Kit Carson Post, No. 2, G.A.R. He was one of the older commission merchants of the city. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emma E. Reese, and a son and daughter, Archibald G. Reese and Miss Ada Elizabeth Reese.
