

Name	Birth/Death	Age	Range/Site
------	-------------	-----	------------

Ryon, Albert Mason	d. 2 Jul 1913	23 yrs. 8 mos. 25 days	R141/219
---------------------------	---------------	------------------------	-----------------

Ryon. Suddenly on Wednesday, July 2, 1913, Albert M., beloved son of Owen C. and Mary Ryon aged twenty-three years, eight months and twenty five days. Funeral from his late residence, 814 1st street southeast, on Friday, July 4 at 2 p.m. Relatives and friends invited to attend interment at Congressional Cemetery.

Ryon. Members of Anacostia Council, No. 16, Jr. O.R.A.M., of the District of Columbia, are requested to attend the funeral services of our late residence, 314 1st street southeast, Friday, July 4, 1913 at 2 p.m.

Maurice P. McGrath, Councilor
R.A. Estep, R.S.

The Evening Star, July 2, 1913, p. 2

Albert M. Ryon Dies From Motor Cycle Fall

Son of Police Sergeant Had Secured Machine Only a Short Time Ago

Albert M. Ryon, nineteen years old, son of Police Sergt. O.C. Ryon, of the fifth precinct, died at Providence Hospital this afternoon as a result of injuries he sustained last night about 8 o'clock when he was thrown from his motor cycle near Pennsylvania avenue and 30th street southeast.

Last night the young man, who was employed as oiler at the District sewage disposal plant, left his home at 314 1st street southeast, to enjoy a ride in the country. When near Pennsylvania avenue and 30th street his wheel struck a stone and skidded to the side of the road.

Ryon was thrown violently to the road. He sustained a broken collarbone, cuts on his head and internal injuries. J.E. Molton of Pennsylvania avenue and 28th street took the injured man to the hospital.

Sergt. Ryon had opposed the idea of his son getting the motor cycle, saying he feared the young man would meet with a serious accident. The son had had the motor cycle only a short time before he was hurt. Coroner Nevitt gave a certificate of accidental death.

Ryon, Arabella	d. 12 Dec 1895		R76/141
-----------------------	----------------	--	----------------

Ryon. On Thursday, December 12, 1895 at 1:30 p.m., Arabella Ryon, beloved wife of Benjamin F. Ryon, aged 50 years. Funeral from late residence, 118 5th street northeast, Saturday, December 14 at 2 p.m. Friends invited.

Ryon, Dennis F.	d. 19 Aug 1885		R10/126
------------------------	----------------	--	----------------

Ryon. On August 19th, 1885 at 11 o'clock p.m., Dennis F. Ryon, aged 45 years. Funeral from his late residence, Sunday, August 22, 4 p.m. Friends and relatives invited. (Marlboro papers please copy).

The Evening Star, August 20, 1885

Sudden Death of a Businessman

Mr. Dennis F. Ryon, the well-known grocer, at 1110 11th street southeast, was stricken with paralysis yesterday afternoon and was removed to his residence, 718 11th street, where he died about midnight. Mr. Ryon was about 48 years of age and was reared in East Washington, for many years being of the house of Ryon & Earnshaw.

Ryon, Earnest M.	d. 20 Oct 1879	11 yrs. 5 mos. 25 days	R9/125
-------------------------	----------------	------------------------	---------------

Ryon. Monday, October 20, 1879, at 5 p.m., Ernest M., oldest child of Dennis F. and Grace A. Ryon, aged eleven years, five months and twenty five days. Funeral from his parents' residence, 718 11th street southeast, at 2:30 o'clock p.m., Wednesday, 22d inst. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend.

Ryon, Francis E.	d. 17 Mar 1899	1 yr. 13 days	R97/277
-------------------------	----------------	---------------	----------------

Ryon. On Friday, March 17, 1899 at his parents residence, Francis Eugene, only son of Ross W. and Hattie A. Ryon (nee Summers) aged 1 year and 13 days.

Dear little hands, I miss them so,
All through the day, wherever I go;
All through the night how lonely it seems,
For no little hands take me out of my dreams.

I miss them all through the weary hours,
I miss them as others do sunshine and flowers;
Daytime or nighttime, wherever I go
Dear little hands, I miss them so.
By Mama and Papa

Name	Birth/Death	Age	Range/Site
------	-------------	-----	------------

Funeral private.

Ryon, Geneva d. 18 Mar 1939 R27/74

Ryon, Geneva Harding. On Saturday, March 18, 1939 at Garfield Hospital, Geneva Harding Ryon, mother of Paul and Grace Ryon of 4500 Watkins ave., Bethesda, Md. Services at the Warner E. Pumphrey funeral home, 8424 Georgia ave., Silver Spring, Md. on Monday, March 20 at 11 a.m. Interment private.

Ryon, Grace Ann d. 30 Dec 1927 R10/125

Ryon. On Friday, December 30, 1927 at her residence, 828 D st s.e. Grace Ann, the beloved wife of the late Dennis Ryon, aged 87 years. Funeral from H.M. Padgett's funeral parlor, January 3, 1928 at 10:30 a.m. thence to St. Mark's Church at 3d and A sts. s.e., where service will be held at 11 a.m. Interment Congressional Cemetery.

The Evening Star, January 1, 1928, p. 7

Mrs. Grace Ryon Dead

Funeral Services Tuesday to Be Held at St. Mark's Church

Mrs. Grace A. Ryon, widow of Dennis Ryon, died at midnight Friday at her home, 828 D street southeast, following an illness of seven months. She was in her 88th year.

Mrs. Ryon for many years was a devout communicant of Saint Mark's Church, Third and A streets southeast, where funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. William H Pettus, the rector, will officiate. Interment will be in Congressional Cemetery.

Mr. Ryon died about 30 years ago. Mrs. Ryon is survived by a son, Frank Ryon, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Geneva H. Ryon, widow of Perry Ryon ,and three grandchildren, Miss Grace Ryon and Paul and Courtney Ryon.

Ryon, Harry Franklin d. 29 Jun 1896 3 mos. 26 days R9/124

Ryon. On June 29, 1896, at 9:30 a.m., Harry Franklin Ryon, only son of Percy B. and Geneva Ryon, aged 3 months and 26 days. Funeral private. (Loudoun county, Va., papers please copy).

Ryon, Howard J. d. 26 Dec 1914 R141/219

Ryon. Suddenly on Saturday, December 26, 1914, Howard J., oldest son of Owen C. and Mary G. Ryon. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from his parents residence, 314 1st street southeast, on Monday, December 28, at 2:30 p.m. Interment at Congressional Cemetery (Prince Georges, Md., papers please copy).

Ryon, James P. d. 29 Jan 1899 53 yrs. R65/303

Ryon. On Sunday, January 29, 1899, at his residence, 327 A street northeast, James P. Ryon, aged 53 years. Funeral from his late residence Tuesday, January 31, at 2:30 o'clock p.m. Relatives and friends invited. (Marlboro, Md., papers please copy).

Ryon, Lottie A. d. 3 Oct 1899 5 yrs. 8 mos. 27 days R141/220

Ryon. On Tuesday, October 3, 1899, at 6:25 o'clock p.m., Lollie Ada, beloved daughter of Owen C. and Mary G. Ryon, aged 5 years 8 months and 23 days. Interment private.

Ryon, Maggie Lillian d. 4 May 1879 6 mos. 25 days R9/125

Ryon. On Sunday, May 4th, 1879, Maggie Lillian, infant daughter of Dennis F. and Grace Ryon, aged 6 months and 25 days. Funeral from residence of her parents, 718 Eleventh Street southeast, Tuesday, 6th inst. At 3 o'clock p.m. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Ryon, Naomi R. d. 23 Dec 1887 R65/302

Ryon. At 8:15 p.m., December 23, 1887, Miss Naomi R. Ryon, after a long illness. Funeral from Christ Church, Navy Yard at 2 p.m., December, 25 (Marlborough papers please copy).

Ryon, Richard Nelson b. 24 Apr 1865 - d. 28 Feb 1914 48 yrs. R66/275

The Evening Star, March 2, 1914, p. 5

Richard Nelson Ryon, Court Official, Dead

Popular Resident of Prince Georges County, Md., Succumbs--Funeral Tomorrow

Special Correspondence of The Star

HYATTSVILLE, March 2, 1914

Richard Nelson Ryon, clerk of the circuit court of Prince Georges county, died at his home, at Cottage City near this place, Saturday evening about 7 o'clock. Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the family residence, Rev. Francis E. McManus, rector of Trinity Church of Upper Marlboro, officiating. The interment will be in Congressional cemetery, Washington. The pallbearers will be W.S. Hill, cashier of the First National Bank of South Maryland, of which Mr. Ryon was vice president; former State's Attorney M. Hampton Magruder, former County Treasurer C.A.M. Wells, James C. Rogers, T. Howard Duckett and Joseph Haas. Following the Episcopal Church service at the house the remains will be placed in charge of Birmingham Lodge, No. 189, F. and A.M. of Beltsville, Prince Georges county, for which the deceased was a member.

His Political Success

No man was better known in Prince Georges county than Richard N. Ryon, and his popularity was shown by the fact that he was elected as county treasurer, register of wills and clerk of the circuit court as a republican in a county supposed to be normally democratic. He was a candidate upon four occasions and his only defeat was in 1905, when C.A.M. Wells beat him for county treasurer by a majority of thirteen votes. Mr. Ryon was several times mentioned as the republican candidate for Congress from the fifth congressional district. He was a close personal and political friend of Gov. Goldsborough, the latter frequently consulting him as to conditions in the party in this section of Maryland. It is believed the governor never made an appointment in Prince Georges county without requiring an indorsement of the applicant from Mr. Ryon.

Born in Prince Georges County

Mr. Ryon was born in Croome, Nottingham district, in 1865, and was the son of William S. and Christiana Ryon, both of whom are dead. His early educational training was received in the public schools of his native county. He later attended the Maryland Agricultural College, and during his sophomore year was compelled to return home, fire having destroyed his father's place. He engaged in farming at Croome, and followed agricultural pursuits for four years. In 1895 he was elected register of wills, defeating T.B. Middleton of Spaulding's district by 350 majority. He served as register of wills four years, and in 1899 was elected county treasurer, defeating his democratic opponent by 113 votes. He served four years, and in 1905 was the republican candidate for treasurer, but was defeated as stated, by C.A.M. Wells, democrat, by a majority of thirteen votes.

In 1890 he married Miss Effie C. Low of Croome, the marriage taking place in Baltimore. In 1905 Mr. Ryon removed to Bladensburg district and erected a home in Cottage City, just outside the corporate limits. His wife and two children, Mrs. R.V. Kellogg and Roland R. Ryon, survive him.

The Evening Star, March 3, 1914, p. 18

Richard N. Ryon Buried

Rites for Clerk of Prince Georges County Held at Cottage City

Special Correspondence of The Star

HYATTSVILLE, Md., March 3, 1914

Funeral services for Richard Nelson Ryon, clerk of the circuit court of Prince Georges county, who died at his home in Cottage City, near this place, Saturday evening, were held this morning at his late residence. Although regular meetings of the commissioners' and orphans' courts and the various official boards were scheduled for today in Upper Marlboro, the courthouse was closed and no business was transacted. The First National Bank of Southern Maryland, of which the deceased was vice president, also was closed.

Rev. F.E. McManus, rector of Trinity Church, Upper Marlboro, read the Episcopal burial service, and the body was turned over to the officers and members of Birmingham Lodge, A.F. and A.M. of Beltsville, Prince Georges county, who conducted services at the house and at the grave in Congressional cemetery, where interment was made. The pallbearers were W.S. Hill, M. Hampton Magruder, C.A.M. Wells, James C. Rogers, T. Howard Duckett and Joseph Haas.

Ryon, Thomas Courtney

d. 8 Jan 1875

R9/124

Ryon. On the 8th instant, at 8 1/2 o'clock p.m., Courtney, youngest son of Dennis F. and Grace Ryon.

Human hands have tried to save thee,
Sighs and tears were all in vain;
Happy angels came and bore thee,
From this weary world of pain.

Fold the waxen hands together,
Close the soft and dreamy eyes;
See, how like a broken lily,
Pale and beautiful, he lies.

Funeral will take place tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Name

Birth/Death

Age

Range/Site

---