Simms, Ann	d. 27 Oct 1858	67 yrs.	R75/107
Simms. On the evening of the 27th instant, Mrs. Ann Simms, in the 68th year of her age. The deceased had been for 30 years a consistent member of the Baptist Church in Alexandria and Washington, and was truly an example of the vital influences of religion, as well in the cheerful submission with which every trial was met, as in the blessed hope which it is at once the privilege and duty of the Christian to cherish. Through much suffering she reached the term of life, dying as she had lived, calmly, meekly, trustingly; and has left to her children, whom she loved tenderly, as she was tenderly loved in return, the well grounded assurance that the event which they mourn was to her but the dawn of a holy and happy immortality. The funeral will take place from the residence of her daughter, on D street, near the corner of 11th, Island, on Saturday, the 29th, at 2 o'clock p.m. Friends are respectfully invited to attend. (Alexandria Gazette will please copy).

Simms, Mrs. Mary	d. 3 Jan 1812	20 yrs.	R45/40
Simms, Mary H.	d. 17 Sep 1845	56 yrs.	R45/40
The National Intelligencer, Sept. 20, 1845
At her residence at High Point, (D.C.) in the 57th year of her age, Mrs. Mary H. Semmes. The life of this excellent lady was most exemplary. Few have merited a higher eulogium than she for the fidelity with which she discharged all the relative duties of life, exhibiting a rare instance of gentleness, patience, and energy under peculiarly severe trials.
By her engaging disposition, her ardent friendships, and amiable domestic virtues she secured a large share of the affections of all who knew her. For her servants she manifested a deep interest, ever mindful of their temporal comfort, and solicitous for their spiritual welfare.
She died in the communion of the Episcopal Church, and has, we cannot doubt, exchanged a life of trial and of suffering here for one of rest and happiness hereafter.
