

Name	Birth/Death	Age	Range/Site
Sustrat, Frederick The Evening Star, July 11, 1876 Exhaustion from the Excessive Heat Numerous Cases and Three Deaths ... Sunday evening, a young German, named Frederick Sustret, employed in the family of Senator Jones, corner of B street and New Jersey avenue southeast, was suddenly prostrated and died at 11 o'clock, without speaking a word after he was stricken down.	d. 9 Jul 1876		R75/251