

Name	Birth/Death	Age	Range/Site
TenBrook, Emma Smallwood Smoot	d. 2 Mar 1904	82 yrs.	R34/226
TenBrook. On Wednesday, March 2, 1904 of pneumonia at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Duane E. Fox, 1611 21st st., Mrs. Emma TenBrook, formerly wife of Dr. Samuel C. Smoot of Washington in the 83d year of her age.
The Evening Star, October 22, 1889
Struck by a Stone and Knocked Down
About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Emma TenBrock, living at 1940 15th street was struck on the head by a stone thrown by Philip May, an eight-year-old boy, and seriously injured. Mrs. TenBrock is an elderly lady, and was in front of her home when the boy, who had been playing, threw the stone and she was knocked down. She was attended by Dr. Manning, and the boy was arrested by Special Officer Lee. In the Police Court the case was continued today.			