

Name	Birth/Death	Age	Range/Site
Wynkoop, Doniphan The Evening Star, May 2, 1925, p. 23 Doniphan Wynkoop Dead Scoutmaster of Troop 86 of Metropolitan Church Doniphan Wynkoop, 27 years old, for the last six years an employe of the war planning division of the supply service, in the office of the quartermaster general, died of heart disease at his residence, 413 New Jersey avenue southeast, Monday. Funeral services were conducted in the Metropolitan M.E. Church Wednesday, with Rev. George Shaw Johnson, pastor, officiating. Interment was in Congressional Cemetery. Mr. Wynkoop worked among boys, and had been scoutmaster of Troop 86, Boy Scouts, of the Metropolitan Church. He was born in the house in which he died, and had lived there all his life. He is survived by his mother and father, Mrs. Mary E. and J. Albert Wynkoop.	d. 27 Apr 1925	27 yrs.	R63/357
Wynkoop, Orvin Wynkoop. On May 14, 1893, at 7:45 o'clock p.m., Orvin Wynkoop, in the 31st year of his age. Funeral to be held at the residence of F.H. Litchfield, 1320 South Capitol street southeast, Wednesday, May 17, 3 o'clock.	d. 14 May 1893	30 yrs.	R13/196